

You are the expert on your child and I'd love to learn more about what goals you have for the coming year.

5 things I'd like to see my child do more:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____

5 things I'd like to see my child do less:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____

Other notes:

Dear parent,

We are implementing a new behavior plan with your child to work on increasing positive, communicative skills. Please see the attached document for details and let me know if you have any questions.

How often would you like updates on progress?

- daily
- weekly
- monthly

What form would you prefer updates?

- phone call: _____
- text: _____
- email: _____
- form/letter

We will reevaluate the behavior plan and make changes in ____ weeks.

How would you like to be involved in that process?

- in person meeting
- phone call
- written survey

As always, please let me know if you have any questions!

Sincerely,

Daily Behavior Log

Student Name: _____ Date: _____

Some great things your child did today:

Some things your child struggled with:

Goal for tomorrow:

Teacher signature: _____

Parent signature: _____

Behavior Incident Report

Student Name: _____ Date: _____

What happened:

What the team did after the behavior:

Strategies we are going to work on moving forward:

Teacher signature: _____

Parent signature: _____